

WASHINGTON - Congressman John W. Olver (1st District) delivered the following remarks on the House floor.

"Mr. Chairman, 33 months have passed since 9/11. It is time this Congress measured the progress.

"Even though we are spending a lot more money, only a minimal percentage of cargo on passenger

"The agencies entrusted with protecting our great nation seem to be in bureaucratic chaos. Just a

"It's time for this body to determine the most critical security needs, based on comprehensive terror

###